“Where Angela Has Led Us”

Monday, July 8 - Monday, July 15, 2019

Sister Rosemary Meiman, OSU is a member of the Roman Union Ursulines, Central Province. A native of Kentucky, Sister is a graduate of Ursuline Academy in New Orleans. As a teacher and administrator in schools and convents in Missouri, Illinois and Minnesota, she developed an interest and love for things historical. Sister has worked with Sister Irene Mahoney and has experienced history through Sister Irene’s writings on the Ursulines of Montana. After spending 17 years in St. Louis as the archivist for Central Province, Sister now works with the Ursuline Archives and Museum in New Orleans. She has joined with those who follow “where Angela has lead us.”
